

The Devon Horse Show and Country Fair Foundation is committed to presenting the Devon Fall Classic, September 13-16, 2012.

We are both excited by the possibilities before us and eager to bring you more information about the show. What we know at this time is that the show is planned as a 3 to 4 day jumper show, but planning is still in the early stages and that may evolve.

Our goal is to present a wonderful event that offers the same level of competition and family friendly atmosphere as the Devon Horse Show and Country Fair.

Think of it as Devon...with a twist!

As plans develop and solidify, we will be sure to keep you informed.

In the meantime, stay tuned, and we look forward to seeing you both at the Devon Horse Show and Country Fair, and the Devon Fall Classic!
